

Be a “Becoming” Disciple

1 Corinthians 9:19-27

Joe Kilner - Elder, Pastoral Intern

Memory Verse: “For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I may win more.” – 1 Corinthians 9:19.

Monday - Read 1 Corinthians 9:19. What are the ways you currently use your freedom in Christ to be a servant/slave to others so that you might win them?

Tuesday - Read 1 Corinthians 9:20-22a. Following Paul’s example, are there additional ways that you might try to “become” as those in your FRAN (Friends, Relatives, Associate, and Neighbors)?

Wednesday - Read 1 Corinthians 9:22b-23. What changes might you make to assure that your life is centered on giving the Gospel away?

Thursday - Read 1 Corinthians 9:24-25. How do you envision the prize that Jesus will give you when you reach heaven? By keeping that vision in front of you, how should your life change?

Friday - Read 1 Corinthians 9:26-27. In what ways might you “up your game” to assure that you are running well the race that Jesus gave us?

Saturday - Read 1 Corinthians 10:1-22. Please pray for those who have yet to hear or respond to the Gospel in preparation for tomorrow’s service. Bring a member of your FRAN to church.
